University Mission

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi is an expanding, doctoral-granting institution committed to preparing graduates for lifelong learning and responsible citizenship in the global community. We are dedicated to excellence in teaching, research, creative activity and service. Our supportive, multicultural learning community provides undergraduate and graduate students with a challenging educational experience. The university's federal designation as a Hispanic Serving Institution (HSI) provides a foundation for closing educational gaps, while its strategic location on the Gulf of Mexico and on the cultural border with Latin America provides a basis for gaining national and international prominence.
The Staff Council (SC) is an elected body of non-faculty employees. The organization functions in accordance with its constitution. The Council serves to represent all benefits-eligible employees of the University not currently represented by other bodies of representative governance (i.e., President’s Cabinet and Faculty Senate).

President: Leslee Basse 361-825-2105
Vice President: Sara Lopez 361-825-5518
Administrative Assistant Catherine Bridges 361-825-2745

The Faculty Senate is an elected body of faculty members and librarians. As an advising and recommending body, the Faculty Senate reports to the President or the President’s designee. The Senate is the faculty’s body for University-wide participation in the governance of the institution.

Speaker: Marilyn Spencer 361-825-5802
Administrative Assistant Catherine Bridges 361-825-2745

The System Employee Benefits Advisory Committee (SEBAC), all is made up of elected representatives from each A&M System member, advises the Director of Risk Management and the Employee Benefits Manager on benefit plan design to meet the needs of employees. SEBAC studies the design and operation of the various benefit plans on an ongoing basis and makes recommendations regarding design and administration of the plans. SEBAC is governed by System Regulation 31-02-03.

Your support of the Faculty/Staff campaign is very important. In many cases, scholarships generated by contributions to the Faculty/Staff campaign change the future for a student struggling to meet the cost of tuition.
STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

LEAVE RULES

- With few exceptions in order to be entitled to Holiday pay you must be in a paid status the day before and after a holiday.
- Holiday, Sick Leave and Vacation hours are based on percent effort.
- In order to be entitled to monthly accruals you must work one day in the month to use the current months sick leave and vacations accruals.
- Non-exempt employees are required to get prior approval of working over the 40 hour work-week.
- The official University Schedule is M-F from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
  - Please note not all departments follow the University Schedule due to customer service needs. Please check with your supervisor to confirm you schedule.
  - Please note that when a holiday provides only 8 hours of pay you work more than 8 hours you must adjust your schedule to ensure you have a 40 hour workweek.
The Family Medical Leave Act was passed by Congress in 1993 to help employees who must take leave due to family emergencies and is designed to promote the stability and economic security of families. The law allows eligible employees to take reasonable leave:

- For incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
- To care for the employee’s child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the employee’s spouse, son or daughter, or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee’s job.

In January 2009 Military Family Leave Entitlements were added to the regulation.

Qualifying Exigency

Eligible employees with a spouse, son, daughter, or parent on active duty or called to active duty status in the National Guard or Reserves may take time off to address personal needs such as:

- Attending Military Events
- Arranging for alternative childcare
- Certain financial and legal arrangements
- Attending counseling sessions
- Attending post-deployment reintegration briefings

Illness of Covered Service Member

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits employees to take leave to care for a covered service member. A covered service member is a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who has a serious injury or illness incurred in the line of active duty.

Sick Leave Pool

Sick Leave Pool hours are donated by an employee, exiting employees or retirees of the University. Hours cannot be designated to any one employee. An employee can apply for sick leave pool for their own illness or that of an immediate family member.

Qualifications:

- Must have a catastrophic illness or injury that requires treatment by a licensed practitioner.
- Missed 160 hours of work. The missed work may be continuous or intermittent.
OTHER TYPES OF LEAVE

- Funeral Leave
- Military Leave
- Jury Duty Leave
- Voting Leave
- Blood/Bone Marrow/Organ Donor Leave

NON-EXEMPT EMPLOYEES

Fair Labor Standards Act provides protections for employees with certain types of jobs.

- Non-Exempt employees must record all hours worked through the Single Sign On Time Traq System.
- Non-Exempt employees earn time and a half for every hour physically worked over forty hours. This time is called FLSA compensatory time. This time is recorded and banked in leave traq to be used at a later time.
- Non-Exempt employees who have more than forty hours recorded on time traq but did not physically work 40 hours within the work week earn an hour for every hour recorded over 40. This is called State Compensatory Time. State Compensatory Time is earned when a holiday occurs or if you were out part of the week due to sick or vacation time and still had over a 40 hours earned that week.
- Compensatory time can not be awarded for work done at home.
  - State compensatory time lapses within 12 months of being earned and can not be paid out at the time of resignation or termination.

EXEMPT EMPLOYEES

- When extraordinary circumstances necessitate works hours beyond those routinely required for the position an employee maybe granted compensatory time.
- All unused compensatory time expires 12 months after the end of the workweek in which the additional hours were worked.
- Compensatory time can not be awarded for work done at home.
- Exempt employees are not covered by the overtime provision so FLSA and are not eligible for payment of overtime hours.
LONGEVITY PAY

A nonacademic employee is entitled to longevity pay of $20 per month for every two years of lifetime service credit as an employee of the state of Texas, up to and including 42 years of lifetime credit if the employee:

- Is in a full-time status on the first work day of the month;
- Is not in a leave without pay status on the first workday of the month; and
- Has accrued at least two years of lifetime service credit no later than the last day of the preceding month.

HAZARDOUS DUTY PAY

A commissioned peace officer is considered to be in a hazardous duty position and entitled to hazardous duty pay of $10 per month for each 12 month period of accrued lifetime credit in a hazardous duty position if the employee:

- Is a state employee for any portion of the first workday of the month; and
- Has completed at least 12 months of lifetime service credit no later than the last day of the preceding month.
- An eligible part-time employee receives a proportional amount of hazardous duty pay.

MONTHLY INCOME

- Employees are paid on the 1st working day of each month for the preceding month.
- Health, Dental, Vision and Accidental Death and Dismemberment Coverage can be deducted on a pre-tax basis.
- Monthly paychecks will be deposited into the account you set up through Single Sign On/HR Connect.
- If you work fewer than 12 months and expect to return in the fall, your summer premiums (June, July and August) will be deducted from your May pay in addition to May insurance premiums from your June paycheck.
